Walk Six: Distance: Approximately 5 miles

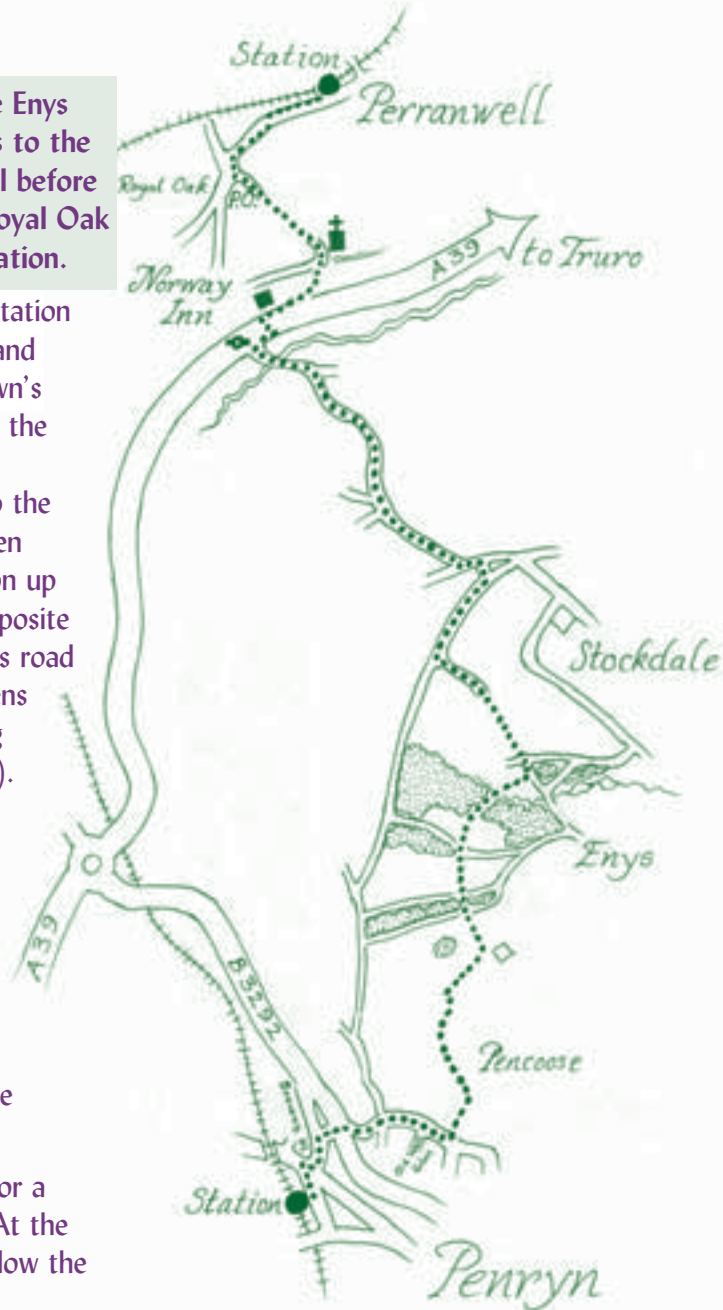

Walk Six - Penryn to Perranwell

This walk takes you through the Enys Estate on tracks and rural roads to the Norway Inn. Visit St Piran's Well before using tracks and paths to the Royal Oak and a millennium path to the station.

Follow the lane to pass the farmhouse and along, bear right then down the track - this can be partially flooded at times - to a gateway ahead where the distinct track goes into the field on the right. Go right here and follow the right hand hedge to the end of the field.

Just before the gate ahead look for a stile into the copse on your left. At the end of the copse turn left and follow the farm lane to the bend.

Continue ahead using the gateway onto a grassed area and on to cross Enys Drive to another stile into a field.

At the far end of the Inn follow the lane uphill - notice the path down to St Piran's Well. Continue uphill where the lane becomes a hedged path. At the road  turn right and continue uphill, passing the church, before reaching a gated farm lane ahead. Go along then down the lane which becomes a hedged path, with a couple of stiles, before reaching the road beside the village post office. The Royal Oak pub is a few yards uphill.

Turn right down through the village, passing the Methodist church, and then up Station Road. Part way up the hill go onto the Millennium path which goes parallel to the road before regaining the road shortly before the station on your left.
